The 25 Best Beers in the World

Thanks to an influx of small-batch importers (and some big retailers such as Whole Foods), it's easier than ever to drink obscure brews from around the globe. At the same time, the American craft scene keeps getting better as ambitious brewmasters pioneer new methods and styles. So for our beer survey, we asked craft-brew luminaries a simple question: What's the best beer in the world? Then we tried them all. The result? A beer-there, drank-that guide to the greatest brews on the planet, in no particular order. Enjoy. Launch Gallery >>

Dark beers, as a rule of thumb, aren't light-bodied, but this olive-black lager's malt manages to add color – not thickness – while also giving it a slightly creamy, toasty touch. [\$2/bottle; halftimebeverage.com]
